

Fall term 2020 shall begin on the Tuesday before Labor Day, followed by:

- fourteen calendar weeks for classes ending on Wednesday plus a four-day reading period;
- a one week Thanksgiving break;
- a five-day period reserved for final examinations.

Registration Day for Fall 2020 will take place on August 31 with classes for all students starting September 1.

Classes will be suspended on Labor Day, Columbus Day, and Veteran's Day.

Thanksgiving break will begin on November 21 and will continue through Sunday, November 29. There will be no academic exercises held or assignments due during this period.

Classes will resume for all students on Monday, November 30 and continue through the last day of classes on December 9.

Final exams will follow a four-day reading period. All exams will be remote and will take place December 14-18.
